

The Santa Fe Center for Alchemical Studies

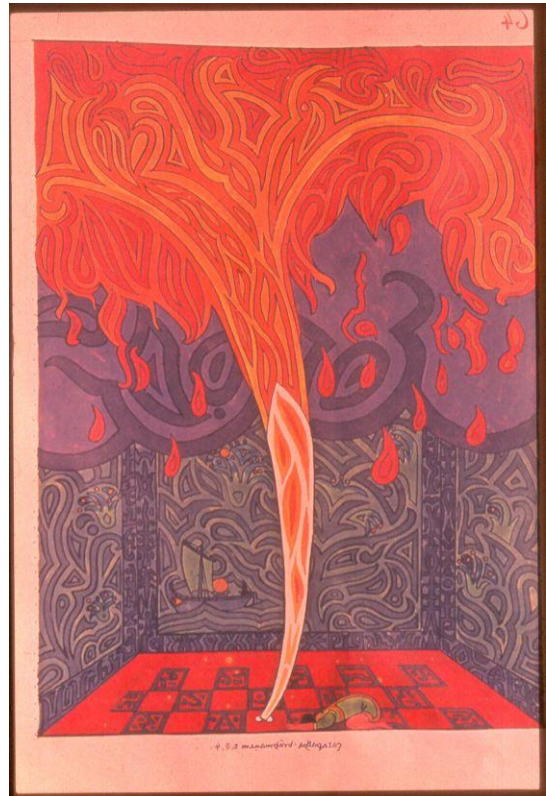

Presents:

EARTHQUAKING TO CONSCIOUSNESS:

TRANSFORMATION OF THE WASTELAND

An experiential workshop for men and women presented by Judy
Jackson and Ken Schmitz

May 20-23, 2010

(REDBOOK IMAGE: BOWING TO FIRE)

As our worlds, inner and outer, are dramatically changing, we ask, "Are we going to make it through this?" Jung's answer was, "If enough individuals will do their inner work". As we allow our earth/bodies and spirit to consciously quake, a new world of values, needs, feelings and truths shake loose and we are awakened and challenged to speak and to live from the new empowerment of our own authentic voice and our own authentic self-expression.

In this workshop we will enter the world of dreams and explore the myth of the Holy Grail as our collective story. Using movement, guided imagery, voice, art and ritual, we will create safe, sacred space inviting participants to shed old skins, drop into the timeless world of soul, touch the Divine inside and experience the emergence and renewal of energies and images from deep within. Each participant works at their own level and their own pace.
